

Kayak Bass Fishing Competition Rules, Terms and Conditions

Four elements comprise the rules, terms and conditions of competition in KBF events. Each competitor must agree to accept and abide by these rules, terms and stipulations as conditions of participation in a KBF Competitive Event. Of course, this requires that each competitor read and understand them.

Any person who refuses to accept and abide by these rules, terms, stipulations and conditions is ineligible to compete. If a competitor, violation of rules will result in disqualification and forfeiture of Entry Fees and of any prizes, awards, and recognitions that he might otherwise have merited.

1. KBF Competition Rules Standards
2. KBF Waiver & Release of Liability Agreement
3. KBF Competition Rules Addendum
4. Captains Meeting, either in a place and time designated by the Tournament Director, or online in video format.

KBF Competition Rules Standards are found on the KBF Website at this web address:

Two KBF Waiver & Release of Liability Agreements are found the bottom of the page. All competitors aged 18 and older agree to the terms of that Agreement by registering for KBF competition. A Youth version of the agreement must be printed, signed by a parent or legal guardian, the youth, and (if different than the parent/guardian), by the Adult Supervisor, who will accompany the youth during competition.

The KB Competition Rules Addendum for each of KBF's competitive events is found on the Event page of the KBF Calendar. Find it by searching under KBF Events Calendar on the KBF Website:

The Captains Meeting is mandatory. Either attend in person, or if viewing the alternative video "Virtual Captains Meeting," signify that you have watched and commit to comply with the rules and guidelines presented there by logging in and commenting below the YouTube video this single word: AGREE
